Tait & Co's 20th Anniversary

This year marks 20 years since Ian Tait ventured out on his own and commenced his own practice. He started off in a serviced office on the Terrace whilst he established his practice, moving to larger premises a short way down the road as the practice grew. Tait & Co has developed into a well-regarded boutique practice offering both commercial law and dispute resolution services to meet the needs of small to medium sized businesses. The firm looks forward to celebrating this milestone later in the year with a function for staff and valued clients and supporters of the firm.
