Seeing Eye Dogs Australia - Elroys Pack

We thought we would update you about a charity we support, Seeing Eye Dogs Australia, a division of Vision Australia. We are currently sponsoring a pack of 6 puppies, the leader of the pack being Elroy! The photo above shows Elroy, Emeric, Everett, Eugene, Edgar and the only female Ellie. The idea is to help turn these cute puppies into fully trained and professional Seeing Eye Dogs!

Puppy sponsors make a regular gift towards the training of a Seeing Eye Dog and with over 300,000 Australians living with vision loss they urgently need to train more dogs that can make a life changing difference to Australians who are blind or have low vision.

Seeing Eye Dogs Australia provides mobility dogs nationwide. It costs $35,000 and takes up to two years to train a Seeing Eye Dog and they don't receive any government funding. We think it's a worthy cause and hope you do too.
