Binding Financial Agreements

We have recently assisted a number of clients with the preparation of Binding Financial Agreements (BFA's). BFA's are often seen as the preserve of family lawyers, but we see them as an essential tool in a sensible asset protection and estate planning strategy. Provided the legal technical requirements are met, BFA's can protect one's assets in the event of a relationship breakdown and ensure that one's assets do not become part of a matrimonial dispute. Please contact us should you require any further information or assistance in respect of a BFA.
