BURLEY SEKEM MERGER

Tait & Co recently acted for Burley Sekem in respect of its merger with Kookaburra Sport.

The merger brings together 2 iconic Australian brands involved in the supply of sporting goods and clothing, Burley Sekem primarily in respect of the various football codes, and Kookaburra primarily in respect of cricket and hockey.

We provided legal advice and assistance from the early negotiation phase of the transaction, through the due diligence process, up to and including the finalisation and implementation of the legal agreement and documentation required for a transaction of this nature.

We look forward to seeing the merged business going from strength to strength in the future.
